Key Highlights in Q2 2025

• Nigeria's improved Real GDP Growth of 4.23% in Q2 2025 being highest quarterly growth in four years.

- Enactment of Nigeria's Investment and Securities Act 2025 incorporating regulations for digital assets and investment contracts. The Act also incorporates regulations for Commodities Exchanges, strengthens Nigeria's Securities and Exchange Commission's (SEC) powers to regulate corporate restructurings and specifies stiffer penalties for market infractions, insider trading, market manipulation and unapproved Investment Schemes.
- Fitch Rating Agency upgrade of Nigeria's Rating from B- to B with Stable Outlook attributed to Federal Government of Nigeria (FGN) commitment to economic reforms.
- IMF downward revision of Nigeria's 2025 GDP Forecast on 22nd April 2025 from 3.4% to 3.0% arising from expected impact of Trump Tariffs on global oil prices and global demand.
- Moody's upward review of Nigeria's Rating from Caa1 to B3 with Stable Outlook attributed to significant improvement in Nigeria's External Fiscal Position.
- Publication of World Bank Global Economic Prospects for June 2025 on 11th June 2025 reviewing downwards 2025 Global GDP Growth by 0.4% to 2.3%. World Bank however reviewed upwards Nigeria' 2025 GDP forecast by 0.1% to 3.6%.
- Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN) termination of regulatory forbearance on COVID 19 Non-Performing Loans of Banks and breaches on the 20% Single Obligor Limits of Banks effective June 30th 2025. CBN also announced temporary suspension of dividend payment, staff bonuses and investment in foreign subsidiaries until breaches are resolved.
- Enactment of Nigeria's Tax Act 2025 and two subsidiary Tax Acts on 26th June 2025 aimed at increasing tax revenues, broadening the tax base and simplifying multiple tax laws. The Tax law which takes effect from January 1, 2026 exempts those earning below N800,000/annum from income tax while increasing taxation on those earning above N20 million/annum. The threshold for qualifications for income tax exemption of small companies was also increased from turnover of N20 million to N50 million. The new law however increased capital gains tax to 30% and removes the current exemption from capital gains tax on capital market investments for transactions of more than N150 million within the year. Capital gains will however be computed after offsetting capital losses and will only apply if proceeds are not reinvested in securities. Many current and prospective investors have expressed strong reservations on the impact of the capital gains tax provision.

Nigeria recorded impressive economic growth in the second quarter of 2025 with year- on- year Real GDP Growth of 4.23%. This was the highest growth rate in 4 years post 2021 COVID-19 recovery. This performance was attributable principally to recovery in Nigeria's crude oil production. Nigeria's Oil Real GDP Growth increased from 1.87% in Q1 2025 to 20.46% in Q2 2025, highest growth rate since Q3 2017. Non-Oil Real GDP Growth also increased from 3.19% in Q1 2025 to 3.64% in Q2 2025. Nigeria's H1 2025 Real GDP Growth was 3.7%, ahead of World Bank 2025 Full Year Forecast of 3.6% and IMF July 2025 forecast of 3.4%.

The key drivers of Non-Oil GDP Growth in the second quarter are Agriculture, Telecommunications, Real Estate/Construction and Finance with Real GDP Growth of 2.82%, 7.39%, 4.11% and 16.13% respectively. All major economic sectors recorded positive growth during the quarter.

International crude oil prices crashed in April 2025 following the announcement of United States tariffs on trading partners. The price of Brent crude declined by 14% on 4th April to a low of USD64/barrel and declined further to 4 years low of USD60/barrel during the month. Prices partly recovered during the quarter as tariffs were reviewed, and implementation deferred but remained depressed as OPEC+ increased production quotas from May 2025. The average price of Nigeria's Bonny light Crude declined by 10% from USD77.47/barrel in Q1 2025 to USD69.6/barrel in Q2 2025.

Nigeria's crude oil production however recovered in the second quarter with average production increasing from 1.62 million barrels per day (mbpd) in Q1 2025 to 1.68 mbpd in Q2 2025, the highest level in 4 years. This trend has continued in the third quarter with Nigeria's July 2025 average and peak production of crude oil and condensates of 1.71 mbpd and 1.84 mbpd respectively. This trend has been attributed to enhanced security, decline in oil diversion and increasing investment in oil infrastructure.

Nigeria's Trade Balance in Goods increased from N5.2 trillion in Q1 2025 to a recent high of N7.5 trillion in Q2 2025. This is attributable to the 7% decline in imports and 3% increase in exports. The increase in exports is attributable to the 73% increase in exports of refined petroleum products and gas which offset the decline in crude oil and non-oil exports. Nigeria's Current Account Balance increased from USD3.7 billion in Q1 2025 to USD5.3 billion in Q2 2025 representing 8.02% of GDP.

Nigeria's Gross External reserves declined marginally from USD37.82 billion on 31/3/25 to USD37.32 billion on 30/6/25. Naira exchange rate remained stable during the quarter with official rate appreciating marginally from N1,536/USD on 31/3/25 to N1,529.71/USD on 30/6/25. The parallel market/BDC rate however declined marginally by 1% to N1,570/USD on 30/6/25.

Nigeria's Inflation rates remained high but declined marginally during the second quarter accelerating the declining trend in the first quarter. Headline Inflation declined from 24.23% in March 2025 to 22.22% in June 2025. This is attributable to the stability in Naira exchange rates and decline in pump prices of Petroleum Products. Core Inflation (All Items less Farm Produce) declined from 24.15% in March 2025 to 22.43% in June 2025.

This trend continued in the third quarter with Headline Inflation declining to 20.12% in August due principally to decline in Food Inflation. Month-on-month Headline Inflation annualized declined from 26.7% in July 2025 to 9.3% in August 2025. The Inflation outlook in the last quarter is positive with the onset of the Harvest season.

Credit Growth to the Private Sector turned positive in the second quarter with marginal growth of 0.2%. Higher lending growth is expected in the second half with anticipated easing of monetary tightening by the CBN and as banks conclude their capital raising exercises.

2025 Nigeria's GDP Rebasing

Nigeria Bureau of Statistics published the outcome of the 2025 rebasing exercise in July 2025 changing the base year for GDP computation from 2010 to 2019. The rebasing estimates also reflects changes in the structure of Nigeria's economy increasing the share of Agriculture sector from 22.12% to 25.83% while reducing the share of Industry from 27.65% to 21.08% in the base year. The share of Services Sector increased from 50.22% to 53.09%. The rebased Nominal GDP figures increased significantly with 2019 Nominal GDP increasing by 41.7% over the previous computations, 39% increase in 2020, 38.9% increase in 2021, 36.1% increase in 2022, 34.6% increase in 2023 and 35.4% increase in 2024.

Other notable changes arising from the rebasing exercise include:

- Better coverage of Water Transport activity and Service Sector.
- Better coverage of Agricultural activities.
- Increase in contribution of Informal Sector to GDP from 41.4% to 42.5%.

Nigeria Insurance Sector Recapitalization

The Nigerian insurance Industry Reform Act 2025 was enacted on 31st July 2025 increasing the minimum capital requirement of insurance companies by 400% and capital requirement for reinsurance companies by 250%. The new capital requirements for Life, Non-Life, Composite and Reinsurance are N10 billion, N15 billion, N25 billion and N35 billion respectively effective 30th June 2026 for existing operators. The law also introduced a risk-based capital framework by specifying minimum capital adequacy ratio of 100% for each line of business. Insurance Capital Adequacy Ratio is defined as Capital divided by Required Risk Based Capital for chosen lines of business as specified by National Insurance Commission (NAICOM). NAICOM is expected to issue guidelines on the composition of minimum capital, acceptable forms of capital, qualifying assets and standardised template for computation of minimum capital.

THE MONEY MARKET

Short term interest rates in Nigeria continued to decline in the second quarter reflecting improving liquidity, increasing demand for fixed interest securities by foreign and domestic investors and decline in volume of treasury bills issued by Federal Government of Nigeria (FGN). Net new issue of Nigeria Treasury Bills declined by 82% in the second quarter. Monthly average interbank rates declined from 28.9% in March 2025 to 25.14% in June 2025. NIBOR declined by an average of 37 basis points during the quarter with 3 months and 6 months NIBOR closing at 26.91% and 27.41% respectively on 30/6/25. Nigeria Treasury Bill yields declined sharply by an average of 266 basis points with 3 months, 6 months and 1-year bills closing at 18.45%, 20.51% and 21.79% respectively. Real yields on money market instruments have however remained negative as the high Inflation rates continue to trend downwards.

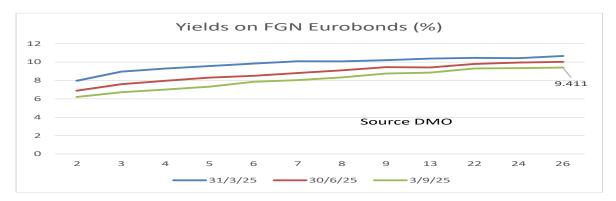

Number 84, August 2025

THE BOND MARKET

The yield curve of FGN Bonds remained inverted with the highest yields at the short end. Average yields on medium to long term FGN Bonds declined by 55 basis points in the second quarter with secondary market yields on the benchmark 10 years bond closing at 18.53%, slightly above the primary market yield of 17.95%. This is broadly in line with the trend in money market yields. A major driver of the decline in yields was the scaling back of supply at the monthly auctions with net issuance of FGN Bonds declining by 51%, from N1.9 trillion in Q1 2025 to N0.9 trillion in Q2 2025. Bid to Cover ratio in June 2025 DMO FGN Bond auction was a recent high of 603% representing unsuccessful bid value of N503 billion. Gross FGN Bond issuance at the DMO auctions in H1 2025 was N2.8 trillion while total net issuance of FGN Bonds including restructured Ways and Means securities during the period was N5.6 trillion.

Turnover on the FGN Bond Over the Counter Market (OTC) declined by 10% from N8.1 trillion in Q1 2025 to N7.3 trillion in Q2 2025.

The volume of new issues of Corporate Bonds in the Nigerian capital markets increased from N82.5 billion in Q1 2025 to N152.9 billion in Q2 2025. Details of the three issues during the quarter are as follows:

- Presco Plc N82.896 billion 23.75% 7 years Bonds due 2032.
- Taj Bank N20 billion 20.5% Perpetual Sukuk Bond.

 TSL SPV Plc (Flow Mill Distribution Limited) N50 billion 21% 10 years Guaranteed Fixed Rate Infrastructure Bond due 2035. Bond guaranteed by Infrastructure Credit Guarantee Company (Infracredit).

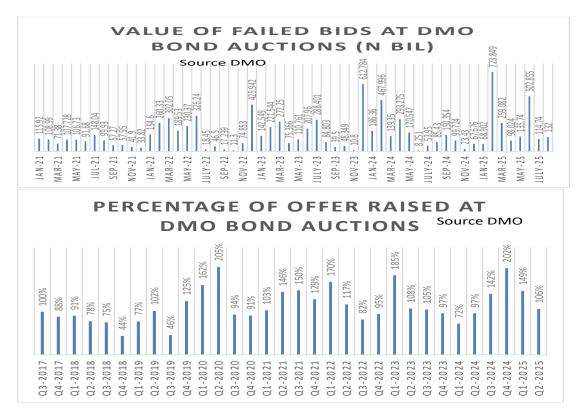

There was no Subnational Bond issued during the quarter. Special FGN Naira Bond issuance during the period include:

- FGN N300 billion 7 years 19.75% Sukuk Bond due May 2032.
- FGN N47.355 billion Green Bond at yield of 18.95%.

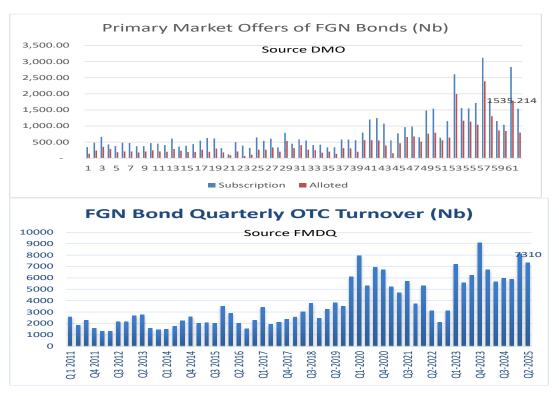

The major external borrowing concluded by domestic listed entities was the USD125 million 4 years Eurobond issued in May 2025 by Ecobank Transnational Incorporated (ETI) at yield of 10.125%.

THE EQUITY MARKET

Activities in the primary market for equities declined further in the second quarter, from N388 billion in Q1 2025 to N231.3 billion in Q2 2025. Details of the four issues during the quarter are as follows:

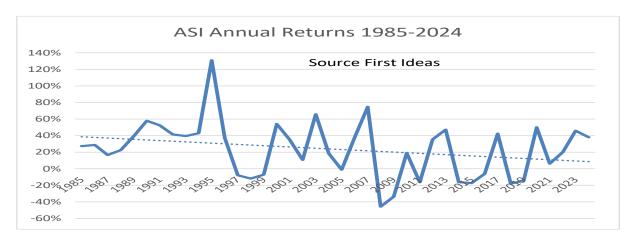

- Wema Bank Plc N149.3 billion Rights issue of ordinary shares at N10.45/share. The issue which opened on 14th April 2025 was fully subscribed.
- Wema Bank Plc N50 billion Private Placement at N11/share. The issue was fully subscribed.
- Multi-Trax Integrated Foods Plc N3.2 billion Private Placement of ordinary shares.
- Sterling Financial Holdings Company Plc N28.8 billion Rights Issue of ordinary shares at N4/share. Issue was 93% subscribed.

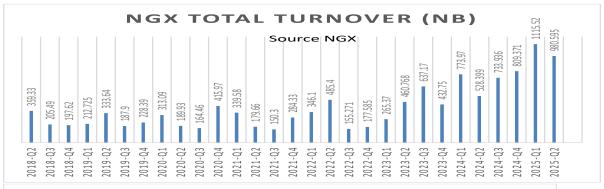

Bank recapitalization exercises are expected to sustain new issue activities in the second half ahead of compliance deadline of March 31st 2026.

Other developments in the equity market during the guarter include:

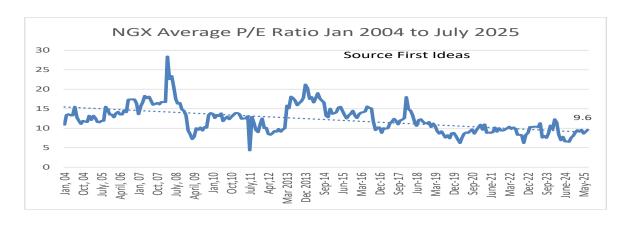

- Completion of First Holdco Plc N149.6 billion Rights Issue at N25/share. The issue was 125% subscribed.
- Listing by introduction of Legend Internet plc on the NGX at N5.64/share representing valuation of N11.28 billion.
- Airtel Africa Plc announcement of opening of the second tranche of its Share Buy Back Program valued at USD55 million.
- Opening of N650 million mandatory offer to minority shareholders of Great Nigeria Insurance Plc at N1.3/share on 11th June 2025. The offer by Resources Consulting Services Limited for 13% shareholding followed its acquisition of 75% controlling shareholding in May 2016.
- Announcement on 12th June 2025 of the result of the N38.99 billion Mandatory Offer to minority shareholders of Guinness Nigeria Plc at N81.6/share. The offer received 58% acceptance valued at N22.9 billion.

The Nigerian Stock Market turned bullish in the second quarter as a result of improving macroeconomic indices, stability in exchange rate, declining Inflation rates, dividend growth by quoted banks and strong turnaround in earnings of non-bank corporates. Growth in the NGX All Share Index (ASI) increased from 2.66% in the first quarter of 2025 to 13.55% in the second quarter. Growth in the ASI of 16.57% compares favorably with the performance of comparative indices and the Morgan Stanley Emerging Market Index growth of 13.7%.

Equity Turnover on the NGX declined by 12% in the second quarter principally due to the block sale of Guiness Nigeria Plc in the first quarter. Q2 2025 Equity Turnover increased by 25% after adjustment of Q1 2025 Turnover. This growth was principally driven by increased participation of domestic investors. Domestic Retail Investors were net buyers during the period while Domestic Institutional Investors were net sellers. Foreign Portfolio Equity inflows declined by 58% in the second quarter while Foreign Portfolio Equity Outflows declined by 63%. Net Foreign Portfolio Equity Inflows was positive reflecting the sharper slowdown in outflows.

All major NGX Sector Indices except Oil & Gas recorded positive growth during the quarter. The leading sectors in H1 2025 were Consumer Goods and Banking with positive growth of 52% and 18% respectively. The worst performance was recorded by the Oil & Gas Sector Index with negative growth of -10%.

Sectors with the worst performance were Construction and Oil & Gas with negative return of -28% and -9% respectively.

MARKET OUTLOOK AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The bullish trend in the Nigerian Stock Market has accelerated in the third quarter driven by strong first half financial performance of large non-bank corporates, continuing stability in the Naira Forex market, declining interest rates and improving investor sentiments. The NGX is expected to close the year strongly with projected growth in ASI of 40%-45%.
